

Every body of water is a fisherman's paradise, in its own class. There are thousands of lakes, rivers and streams in Canada which offer a truly sporting chance for the angler and his family to battle game fish. Whether you prefer tuna, Atlantic or Pacific salmon, steel-head, Arctic char, or trout of any species, mas-kinonge, large or smallmouth bass, walleyes, Northern pike or the popular panfish, Canada has them.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

The Canadian Government Travel Bureau welcomes your inquiries and provides a free information and travel counselling service on travel to and within Canada. The Bureau works in close co-operation with other federal departments and with provincial and local tourist associations, and transportation companies, so that vacationers may be supplied with the latest and most complete information.

Inquiries may be directed to one of the following offices:

Canadian Government Travel Bureau
Ottawa, Canada

Canadian Government Travel Bureau
Canada House, 680 Fifth Avenue
New York 19, New York

Canadian Government Travel Bureau
102 West Monroe Street
(corner Clark Street)
Chicago 3, Illinois

Issued under the authority of the Minister of Northern Affairs and Natural Resources

Printed in Canada

ROD ACTION IN CANADA

Canada invites all devotees of rod and reel to come and enjoy fishing at its best, in salt water along its coasts, or in any of the thousands of fresh water lakes and streams between those coast lines. There is fun for the family on lake and stream, and at the end of the day, pleasant relaxation in camp or fishing lodge, where tales are told of big ones that didn't get away. Whether you are a fly caster, spinning tackle enthusiast, a bait caster or troller; whether you are an expert or a tyro, there is fishing fun for you in Canada.

Fishing fun for all